

Dr. Bijayani Mishra completed her Ph.D. from the Centre for the Study of Social Systems at Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, and was a recipient of the ICSSR Doctoral Fellowship. Her main areas of interest are Sociology of Gender, Penology, Ethnography, and Social Movements.

She is a member of the Advisory Committee to the Ministry of Cooperation, Government of India, and also serves on the scientific committee of the UNESCO/ICDE Chair at Athabasca University in Canada. She has presented papers at numerous national and international conferences, both in India and abroad, and has been invited to speak on a range of social issues.

Dr. Mishra writes regularly for newspapers and online platforms, focusing on social topics. She is currently editing a book titled Beyond Belief: South Asian Narratives on Religion, Environment, Gender, which will be published by Vernon Press in the USA. Additionally, she is one of the executive editors of the journal Asian Ethnicity, published by Routledge, Taylor and Francis in the UK.