National Cybersecurity Awareness Quiz on the Occasion of Dussehra & Cyber Jaagrookta Diwas

Level: National
Date- 6-10-2022
Name of the organizing Department: Department of Computer Science
Convenor : Dr. Shikha Badhani
Coordinator of the event: Dr. Shikha Badhani and Dr. Shweta Sankhwar
Number of the participants- 211

On the occasion of Dussehra & Cyber Jaagrookta Diwas, Department of Computer Science, Maitreyi college organized a quiz on the topic "CYBERSECURITY AWARENESS". The coordinators of the Quiz were Dr. Shikha Badhani and Dr. Shweta Sankhwar. The student support team comprised of Nivedita Panwar and Aakansha from B.Sc(H) Mathematics 2 yr. The main purpose of this quiz was to warn everyone about "The New Age Ravana". In the age of internet and rampant social media use, it is easy to fall prey to many Ravanas who try to take advantage under the convenient guise of an innocent persona. However, the new age Ravana can still be conquered with the age-old weapons of staying alert and taking timely action and well, not having to engage in a full-fledged war with a multi-headed man in a foreign land!!

A total of 211 people responded, of which 183 were students, 14 were faculty members, 11 were non-teaching employees, and 3 were from other categories. The average score was 16.75 out of 20, which is very pleasing and indicates that the majority of people have cybersecurity awareness. To be more precise, 172 responders in total scored 15 or above. 39 respondents, however, scored below 15, representing the least aware section of our society. E-certificates with the score received by the participants were awarded to all.

Seen Thanks!
Shikha

Date of visit: 21 April 2023
Place of visit: National Science Center and Prime Minister Sangrahalaya, Delhi
Teacher-in-charge: Dr. Shikha Badhani
Total no. of students: 47
Total no. of faculty: 2
Total no. of Non-teaching staff: 3

Ilustrado, the Computer Science Society of Maitreyi College successfully organized an educational excursion to National Science Centre and Pradhan Mantri Sangrahalaya, New Delhi on 21st of April 2023, Friday. It was a 1 day trip within Delhi only.

The trip was designed in a way to enhance student's learning experience outside of the classroom along with fun.

Starting with the National Science Centre, the students were then divided into smaller groups and given a guided tour of the center. The tour included visits to various galleries, such as the Mathematics Gallery, the Life Science Gallery, the Physical Science Gallery, and the Fun Science Gallery.

The students had the opportunity to participate in various interactive exhibits and hands-on experiments. In the Mathematics Gallery, the students learned about the concepts of geometry, algebra, and trigonometry through interactive exhibits such as the Fractal Patterns and the Rubik's Cube. In the Life Science Gallery, the students learned about the human body's various systems, DNA, and genetics through interactive exhibits such as the Human Anatomy and the DNA Model.

In the Physical Science Gallery, the students learned about the principles of physics and chemistry through hands-on experiments such as the Newton's Cradle and the Liquid Nitrogen Experiment. In the Fun Science Gallery, the students learned about various scientific phenomena through interactive exhibits such as the Mirror Maze and the Gravity Well.

We continued our trip after the lunch break and went to the Prime Minister's Museum (PM Sanghralaya) in New Delhi, India. The trip aimed to give the students an insight into the history of India's Prime Ministers, their lives, and their contributions to the country.

Upon arrival, the students were greeted by the museum staff, who briefed them on the rules and regulations (very friendly and nice staff who made sure we saw everything since the Museum was huge). The students were then divided into smaller groups and given a guided tour of the museum. The tour included visits to various galleries, such as the Nehru Gallery, the Indira Gandhi Gallery, the Rajiv Gandhi Gallery, and the Atal Bihari Vajpayee Gallery.

In the Nehru Gallery, the students learned about the life and achievements of India's first Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru. They saw rare photographs, letters, and personal belongings of Nehru ji.

In the Indira Gandhi Gallery, the students learned about the life and achievements of India's first female Prime Minister, Indira Gandhi. They saw her famous sari, the car in which she was assassinated, and other personal belongings. In the Rajiv Gandhi Gallery, the students learned about the life and achievements of Rajiv Gandhi, India's youngest Prime Minister. They saw his personal belongings, including his famous windcheater. In the Atal Bihari Vajpayee Gallery, the students learned about the life and achievements of Atal Bihari Vajpayee ji, one of India's most respected Prime Ministers.

Last but not the least, when we were leaving Pradhan Mantri Sangrahalaya, we were bid adieu by our National bird - a beautiful dancing peacock that made the whole trip even more memorable.

In short it was a fun yet knowledgeable trip where we made some great memories, clicked some wonderful pictures and had the opportunity to spend some unforgettable time.

Significance of the trip

The educational trip to the National Science Center provided the students with an opportunity to learn about various scientific concepts and principles in a fun and interactive way. The trip helped the students to develop an appreciation for science and technology and encouraged them to pursue careers in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) fields.

The trip to the PM Sanghralaya provided the students with an opportunity to learn about the history of India's Prime Ministers and their contributions to the country. The students were able to gain insight into the lives of these great leaders and understand the challenges they faced while leading the country. The trip helped the students to develop an appreciation for the history of India and the important role that Prime Ministers have played in shaping the nation.

COLLEGE LEVEL

Date: 5 May 2023

Organized By: Ilustrado, Department of Computer Science

Number of students from Maitreyi : 56

The elections of students' council were held through Google Meet platform on 5 May 2023. The elections were smoothly conducted and organized by third year students of B.Sc. Physical Science with Computer, which gave the candidates an opportunity to campaign for the elections of different posts of Ilustrado, across the whole batch of B.Sc. Physical Science with Computer Science, a day before through Google meet. The positions for which the candidates gave their names were President, Vice President, Treasurer and General Secretary.

The preliminary round consisted of giving an impromptu speech. The candidates who had fled nominations were asked to give a two-minute speech on why they're suitable for the position and what has been their experience with Ilustrado. This allowed the voters to judge the candidates better.

In the second round, all second and third year students were requested to vote for a candidate that they like. The process of voting took place for 25 mins through Google form and the votes were counted post that. Finally, through a fair decision that was for one and for all.
